

Quality of Life

Catawba County Chamber of Commerce

At the Catawba County Chamber of Commerce, it's our business to help your business succeed. Businesses, regardless of size, type and sector, can effectively use our Chamber to excel in the following areas:

- Grooming and maintaining a base of lifelong customers
- Strengthening your management and employee teams
- Building a prosperous 21st Century business environment

The Chamber's Government and Community Affairs program is actively advancing the interests of our 1,300 business members and general region in Raleigh and with local governments countywide. The Chamber's role of successfully bringing people together, so they can grow their individual businesses is still our top priority. Our annual business program features more than 75 meetings, events and seminars for networking, professional training, employee development and imparting general business and economic information.

Sports & Recreation

Catawba County offers a wide range of Sports and Recreation for enthusiasts of every kind. Rock Barn Golf & Spa is home to the Greater Hickory Classic, a PGA TOUR Champions Tour Event. Other golf courses include the Catawba Country Club, the Lake Hickory Country Club, Hampton Heights Golf Club, Catawba Springs Golf Club, and Mountain View Golf Club. The Hickory Motor Speedway hosts the NASCAR Dodge Weekly Series and is known as the "Birthplace of the NASCAR Stars". 2004 South Atlantic League Champion Hickory Crawdads (Class A Affiliate-Texas Rangers) offer minor league baseball at it's best. The YMCA of Catawba Valley offers numerous athletic, daycare and health and fitness opportunities for all ages at several facilities in the county. Additionally, the Catawba River provides many opportunities for boating and other recreations. Catawba County is also home to numerous parks that include Bakers Mountain Park and Riverbend park and provide opportunities ranging from family picnics and playgrounds to hiking and fishing.

Arts & Culture

Home to three community theatres, a college theatre, a symphony, a choral society, and a first class art museum, Catawba County provides an array of artistic and cultural entertainment. The Hickory Community Theatre is the third oldest and one of the largest community theatres in North Carolina. In addition to its productions and educational classes, the Hickory Community Theatre also provides entertainment opportunities ranging from karaoke to a series of movie nights. Like the Hickory Community Theatre, The Green Room offers a range of plays and musicals as well as educational classes and other opportunities for youth. The Lenoir-Rhyne University Playmakers offer productions each year as well. The Western Piedmont Symphony, a professional orchestra of 60+ members, presents an annual season of symphonic music featuring guest artists who are rising stars of classical music. The Western Piedmont Symphony is also well noted for its outreach to students. Each year, the Chamber Orchestra (a smaller version of the full orchestra) goes "on the road" to bring concerts to nearly 30,000 public, private and home-schooled children in four Hickory metro area counties. The Hickory Choral Society, a volunteer organization of over 150 voices, presents three concerts annually: a traditional Christmas Concert, a classical Winter Concert and a Spring Concert featuring a guest artist. The Hickory Museum of Art is the second-oldest art museum in North Carolina and the first museum in the Southeast to collect American art. The Hickory Museum of Art offers exhibitions, lectures, art classes, films and outreach programs to schools and other groups. Additionally Catawba County offers a Science Museum, a History Museum, several concert associations, a youth symphony and a wide variety of musical groups ranging from Barbershop to Bluegrass.
